VISTULA LANDSCAPE

ADVENTURE ADD-ON

Oswiecim – small town at the confluence of Sola and Vistula Rivers, west of Cracow. Although, there is a beautiful Old Town and scenic medieval castle, most visitors come here to see the Museum – horrifying testimony of Nazi Regime and Holocaust – the Nazi concentration and death camp of Auschwitz-Birkenau. The camp, place of one of the most terrible crimes against humanity remained virtually untouched after the liberation in 1945 – one can see the gas chambers, crematories, prisoners barracks and guard towers, as they were left by the fleeing German troops.

ADVENTURE ADD-ON

■ Tyniec – famous Benedictine abbey founded by king Casimir the Restorer in 1044, situated on a limestone rock at the Vistula bank, some fifteen kilometers from Krakow. One of the oldest abbeys in Poland and without any doubt most powerful of the medieval monasteries, flourishing between the 13th and 16th centuries. During that period Tyniec Abbots were called “Masters of five towns and hundred villages”. Fortified monastery complex guarded the road to Krakow, at that time the capital of Poland. The abbey was surrounded by high walls with two powerful gates leading to the inner yard and the monastery, church with two towers and great well cut in the limestone rock.
